What Results Would Follow the Impeachment of the President.

In a recent speech at Cleveland Jack Hamilton discussed this question. Hear him:

After declaring that the President must and will be impeached and brought to trial before the Senate upon the reassembling of Congress, he thus foreshadowed the commencement of the second civil war. "What then?" I am asked. I can tell you a part of it. The President, who holds that this is not the Congress of the United States, but only a fraction of it, will refuse to accept the service of the writ of impeachment; the Senate will declare that Andrew Johnson, being impeached, can no longer exercise the functions of the office of President of the United States until he shall have been tried and acquitted. Under the Constitution the presiding officer of the Senate will become the Acting President of the United States, and all officers of the Government, civil, military and naval, will be called upon, and it will be their duty to give ear and heed to him, and to obey his orders. What then? Why, then, if Andrew Johnson should call upon his friends to adhere to him, it will be a question for the intelligence, patriotism and love of liberty of this great people to determine whether they will sustain their Constitution, their laws and their Government, or whether they will be supple tools in the hands of a tyrant and a usurper. [Loud and long applause.] And if any military commander, no matter if he be the highest in position and reputation, shall respond to Johnson's call, and suffer himself to be used by him, he will find that he will then have to encounter the whole power of the people of this great West, and he will be unmade even more speedily than he has been made. [Applause.]

Political Riot in Indiana,—The Beginning of the End.

INDIANAPOLIS, September 24.—A disgraceful riot occurred in Shelbyville, Indiana, on Saturday night last. Hon. D. W. Voorhees had addressed a Democratic meeting during the day, at which there was considerable disturbance, and a fight ensued. After the meeting had dispersed, the sheriff of the county arrested a man named Ercott, who had just come out of the penitentiary and was under an indictment for felony. A number of Radical politicians, who were supposed to be under the lead of the favorite candidate for sheriff, attacked the present incumbent of that office, and essayed to rescue Ercott. The officer gave the prisoner into the charge of two of his assistants, and arrested a man named Gilbert, who was one of the party who attempted to rescue the prisoner. He succeeded in lodging Gilbert in the county jail, and was subsequently attacked by a mob and driven into the Ray House, where he was closely besieged for several hours. The mob finally left the sheriff and proceeded to the jail, where, with improvised battering rams, they broke open the doors, and released all the prisoners, including Gilbert.

The affair created a great excitement in the surrounding country, and numbers of armed men came into the town on Sunday, and threatened to burn it down. The citizens of both parties held a meeting, and succeeded in quieting the people.

Ercott was subsequently arrested and lodged in jail; Gilbert surrendered himself and gave bail. Another attempt was made on Sunday night to release Ercott, but the mob was not sufficiently formidable to succeed, and quiet was finally restored.—Telegram in New York Herald.

If the returns of the Maine election will only be kept back long enough, possibly they may show that the Democrats have carried the State. Thus far every additional report from Maine has reduced the majority claimed for the Republicans. First it was 30,000, then 28,000, and now it promises not to exceed 23,000.—There are in the State 431 towns, of which 362 have been heard from, and these voted as follows:

Pillsbury (Dem.)	38,108
Chamberlain (Rep.)	64,945
Republican majority	26,837

The remaining 69 towns, it is believed, will reduce this majority to 23,000 at least. Should this be the case, the Democratic vote of 1866 will show an increase of twenty-five per cent. over that of last year, while the corresponding Republican increase will be but five per cent. Such kind of Republican gains in New York and Pennsylvania will elect Hoffman and Clymer.—N. Y. World.

Blasphemous BROWNLOW, in his Cleveland speech, last week, discoursed of his future state as follows:

"If God, in His providence, should call me on, I have no fears of the consequences beyond the grave. If the books have been correctly kept in the upper world, as I have no doubt they have been, there will be a small balance in my favor."

The "small balance" in his favor includes, probably, his Philadelphia statement that he "had rather go to hell with loyal negroes than to heaven with rebel whites."

A suit has been brought against a Southern insurance company in the city court of Augusta, Ga., by the representatives of a confederate conscript who died in service. The company claim that the entry of the deceased into military service avoids the policy. The heirs insist that, as that entry was involuntary, the company are holden. The city court sustained the company, and the case has been appealed.

DIRECT TAX IN NORTH CAROLINA.—The Board of Direct Tax Commissioners for North Carolina, consisting of Messrs. H. Potter, Jr., John R. French and E. H. Sears, have arrived in Washington, and will, in compliance with an order from the Secretary of the Treasury, present the reports of their operations and close up their accounts.

The Radicals pretend to have a party in North Carolina, and have nominated an old gentleman, "General" Dockery, 70 years of age, for Governor. It is announced that the nomination was made by fifteen men, in the office of the Raleigh Standard.—N. Y. World.

"Brick" Pomeroy says he hopes when General Butler dies he will be buried all in one place. If cut up in pound chunks and buried in different cities, thieves would grow from his grave spontaneously, as do mushrooms from a compost heap.

$40 REWARD.

STOLEN, on the night of (Monday) 27th. Aug. from Mr. Blake Bryan, of Northampton Co., a BAY MARE, which was traded to me by the theif for a dark blood bay horse about 12 years old, compactly built, Romish face, one white hind foot, with small white spot in forehead, and a very good Saddle horse. The theif is a light mulatto boy, about 22 years of age, light hair and eyes, and professed to be traveling with an officer of the Freedman's Bureau.

I will pay the above reward for the horse and thief, or $20 for the recovery of the horse, and $20 for the apprehension of the thief.

EXECUTOR'S SALE OF

DESIRABLE DWELLING, NICE TOWN LOTS, AND A TRACT OF LAND

Near Warrenton, N. C.

As executor of Dr. Hugh J. Davis, to effect a division among his legatees, I shall sell to the highest bidder, on the 15th day of November, 1866, at his late residence, in the town of Warrenton, N. C., the DWELLING HOUSE and LOT. Also a Lot in front of Dwelling, and a Lot adjoining the Court-House square; and a tract of Land about two miles distant from Warrenton.

The Dwelling is in cottage style, containing ten rooms, and has two basements. Near the centre of the town, surrounded by magnificent oaks, it is in one of the handsomest locations in Warrenton, on a lot of about four and a half acres, having an ample yard and garden well inclosed, with Stables, Kitchen, Smoke House, Dairy, Carriage House, Corn Crib, Servants' House, two good Offices in the yard, a well of excellent water, and is bounded by four streets. This square is sufficiently large, and so arranged as to be divided into two beautiful Building Lots, fronting towards the main part of the town. The Lot in front of the Dwelling is enclosed, contains over an acre, without any building, and is bounded by three streets.

The lot in rear of the Court-House fronts on the street about one hundred and ninety-two (192) feet, and contains about three-fourths of an acre. This lot has a Store, with several rooms, at the north corner, a residence in the centre, with several rooms, and an office with two rooms at the south end.

The tract of Land contains two hundred and eleven acres, in original growth partly, but mostly in second growth pine, and is situated on both sides of the main road to Clark's Bridge. Being so near Warrenton by a good road, this tract is valuable for its fire wood, having been reserved for this purpose, but would make a nice farm.

Possession of Dwelling and Lots given on first of January, 1867, and the tract of Land given up at sale.

TERMS.—On the Dwelling, five hundred dollars cash, and on that and the rest of the property a credit of twelve months, from day of possession. Bonds, with satisfactory security, required, and title withheld until payment. Inquiries answered.

Ex'r Dr. H. J. Davis.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE,

LOCATED IN AND ADJOINING THE TOWN OF WARRENTON, N. C.

FOR SALE.

The Warrenton Female College is now offered for sale, on reasonable terms. This College has been in successful operation, for over twelve years, and, during that time, it has earned a reputation as an Institution of learning, second to none in N. C.

The location is such as to warrant a full attendance of pupils, being very accessible from any point, especially the Eastern portions of N. C. and Va.

The Committee, who have been empowered to make sale of this property, deem it unnecessary to say more of this Institution as its character for a high grade of scholarship, and the elevated standard of morals inculcated under the eye and supervision of its late President, E. E. Pariham, is already well known.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the South.

There is now a sufficiency of Buildings and other Conveniences attached to this Real Estate, to conduct a large and flourishing school. The premises contain about SIXTY ACRES of Land a material portion of which is within the Corporation. This, with all or a part of the furniture, &c., belonging to the same, can be purchased with the land and buildings. This property will be offered privately for sale until Wednesday the 3rd day October next, and, if not then sold, will be on that day sold, at public auction, to the highest bidder.

The Committee are fully authorized to sell, and would say that a rare chance is offered to any party wishing to purchase such property, as time sufficient, if required, will be given. Possession given immediately.

Any person or party wishing to examine the property will be shown it by E. E Parham, the present occupant, or by any one or more of the Committee.

INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS.

Scientific men, who thoroughly understand the subject, concur with great unanimity in saying that nothing exerts such a deleterious influence against health as bad bread. The remedy is at hand in SIMPSON'S INFALLIBLE YEAST POWDERS, the value of which is thus certified:

RALEIGH, Aug. 24, 1866.

I have tested the Yeast Powders you manufacture and can recommend them as vastly superior to any other ever used by me. In addition to the lightness and sweetness of the bread, the powders are economical, as one-third the lard usually required will answer in the making of either loaf bread or biscuit. For pastries and cakes they are excellent.

VIRGINIA A. ORR.

The price of these powders per package is 25 cts. or 75 cts. per pound. To be had at Wm. Simpson's Confectionary Store, Fayetteville Street, Raleigh, N. C.—

RALEIGH, Aug. 23, 1866.

This is to certify that I have used Mr. Simpson's Yeast Powders and find them to be superior to any I have ever used. After trying them once no housekeeper will be satisfied without them.

MRS. S. D. HARRISON.

THE SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, SEATON GALES, } Editors.

Friday Evening, Sept. 28, 1866.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS.
No Further Amendments.

FOR GOVERNOR,
JONATHAN WORTH,
OF RANDOLPH.

Election, Thursday, October 18th.

A Remarkable History.

Consistency is a jewel. While Jonathan Worth was one of the most uncompromising Union men and peace men before the war, such has been the circumspection and purity and frankness of his whole course, that no one ever suspected him of infidelity to his State and people.

Gen. Dockery, though a professed Union and peace man before the war, as early as December 1860 voted to empower the Governor to expend $300,000 in munitions of war for the State.—When the war broke out, he pitched in with his sleeves rolled up, sent his six sons into the war, sent his negroes to the fortifications, aided his son Oliver to raise men for the field, and yet in less than two years became so indifferent as actually to have created the suspicion that he was a reconstructionist, and actually was compelled to deny it by a public letter in the Standard.—That paper then endorsed him as a "noble old Roman," for his devotion to the Southern cause. But in a little over a year, he was again branded as a reconstructionist. At a public meeting in Richmond County, he denounced Holden as having "out-lied them all," yet turned around and voted for him in opposition to Gov. Vance, and from that time until the war ended conoodled with Holden to keep the State in a ferment. When the war is over, he comes out as a Union man—always Union—never anything else. Holden endorses Dockery and Dockery endorses Holden, though he had said years ago, and has never taken it back, that Holden had "out-lied them all." Gen. Dockery was always famous for his denunciation of secessionists, yet in 1866, he accepts the nomination of Holden, the man who taught secession to the people of North Carolina.

More than this. The very man who denounced and ridiculed Gen. Dockery years ago as an ignoramus—a deceiver—a demagogue, in 1866 so wraps him around his fingers, that he swallows the bitter pill, the Howard (negro suffrage) Constitutional amendment, at his bidding, for the empty bauble of a nomination for Governor, without the remotest possibility of an election. Alas! what is man.

Where is Gen. Dockery's love for the Constitution—for the Government and the Union of his fathers—where are his old, long-tried principles, which led him to endorse the government of Washington, of Madison, of Henry Clay and Daniel Webster as the best government in the world? Can he forget all his early political principles, that he is ready so soon to barter the Federal Union for a consolidated Union? A government which recognises the rights of the citizens of Buncombe, and Jackson, and Cherokee, or Currituck, to be tried in their own Courts, contiguous to the place where the offence is committed—a government of white men;—is he ready to barter such a government as that for one which would drag him and his witnesses, at so great expense and at such hazard to his cause, from Cherokee or Currituck to Raleigh, or perchance to Washington City—for a government which forcibly demands equal civil and political rights for the freedman, but yesterday an ignorant slave, as for a life-long American citizen? Is he ready to abandon President Johnson, who seeks to restore the government, who stands up squarely for the Constitution as it is, for a government devised and planned by the very class of men at the North whom he charged, in 1861, with being partners in bringing on the late wicked war? Alas! the uncertainties of a man who follows that political changeling, W. W. Holden.

Not so with Jonatham Worth? He is to be found yet in the same old company, with the friends of the Constitution and the Union.—Men change, times change, but Jonatham Worth changeth not. He is the same man of peace—the same lover of the Union—the same lover and friend of his State and his people, that he used to be. The people know him, and know where to find him.

Suppose We Adopt it.—What Then?

We have all along insisted that if the Southern States were to ratify, at once, the Howard amendment, there is no guarantee that we should be restored to our rights of representation in the Union.

On the contrary, the evidences are daily multiplying that the simple adoption of the amendment by the South will not secure the admission of our representatives into Congress. The Independent, one of the leading organs of Radicalism at the North, says:

"God forbid! No leading Republican in Congress means to admit the ten waiting States simply on the adoption of that amendment. These States are to be admitted on no conditions short of the equal political rights of their loyal citizens without distinction of race. A reconstruction of the Union on any other basis would be a national dishonor. Until the rebel States can come back on this basis, they shall not come back at all."

We do not see why the Radicals are so tender footed, however. The Howard amendment leads directly to negro-suffrage, in its effects and consequences. But what the Radicials want is, that we should directly, in so many words, and by positive State legislation, humiliate and degrade ourselves by granting it.

Our people will do nothing of the kind, nor will they accept, voluntarily, the Howard amendment, which is a first and fatal step in the direction of negro suffrage.

The Western Extension.

The Standard endeavors to make capital for Gen. Dockery in the West, by giving a short speech of the old gentleman's, in the late Convention, in which he favored the sale of the State's interest in the Western Railroad to a company who would complete the road to the Tennessee line.

The whole tenor of the course, speeches and votes, of Gen. Dockery, in the Convention, dodging every vote that might entrap him in future and bristling up very manfully when propositions were introduced out of which capital might be made, so impressed the members that the old gentleman was bidding for a nomination for Governor, that he seldom made a movement or a speech that did not elicit a hunch, or a wink, or a smile, and sometimes a broad grin, from a good portion of the body.

We believe it was on the occasion of the speech alluded to by the Standard, that Patrick H. Winston, Esq., that strong-sensed, far-seeing man, yet incorrigible wit, arose, and in his usually bland and humorous manner proposed, that the Worth-side of the House stood ready at any moment to duplicate any proposition to benefit the West that came from the opposite side, and, more than this, they would not only go as far as the opposition, but they would "throw in twenty barrels of herrings to boot." This brought down the house, and the old General succumbed.

We are not prepared to say how much farther Gov. Worth will go beyond the proposition of Mr. Winston, but such is his known interest in the development of the great resources of Western North Carolina, and such is the anxiety of his friends to promote that development, that we think we hazard nothing in saying that his friends stand ready to transfer the State's entire interest in the Western extension, upon the simple condition that any company, North or South, will complete the Road to the Tennessee line. Moreover, our Western friends may consider us committed, at all times, to go over and beyond any proposition Gen. Dockery or his friends may propose, in promoting the welfare of the Western Counties. If need be, we call upon our cotemporaries, the Statesville American, the Cleaveland Argus and the Asheville News, to endorse for us.

Look out for Roorbacks.

We admonish the Conservative press of the North to keep a sharp eye upon telegrams, private letters, and the statements of the Raleigh Standard, Newbern Times, Rutherford Star and Hendersonville Pioneer, of this State, in regard to the favor with which the Howard amendment is received in this State.

The following which we find copied into the Northern papers is so notoriously false, that no man in this State would risk his reputation, if he has any, to repeat it as correct:

THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT IN NORTH CAROLINA.—It is stated in a Northern journal by private letters from prominent men in North Carolina, that there are forty thousand voters in that State in favor of the Constitutional Amendment, and that an effort will be made by the Union members of the next Legislature to secure its ratification.

So far from there being 40,000 voters in this State for the Constitutional amendment, we venture the assertion that the Howard-amendment candidate cannot get 5,000 votes in the State on that simple issue alone. If he gets more votes, which is somewhat doubtful, his friends must ignore the Howard amendment and vote for him on other grounds. The Howard amendment cannot elect ten members of the next Legislature.

Everywhere in Wake, where Mr. Holden has been more popular than anywhere else, he is as dead a duck as any man we know. Up to the present time, and the election is not three weeks off, we cannot get a candidate to come out in favor of the Holden candidate and the Howard amendment. Twelve months ago Mr. Holden carried Wake County by 1,400 votes. From all that we can gather from the people, this year Gov. Worth will beat Gen. Dockery in Wake largely.

Wake County.

We learn that, at Spikes' precinct in this County, on yesterday, M. A. Bledsoe, Esq., announced himself as a candidate for the Senate, and Messrs. J. P. H. Russ, R. S. Perry and C. J. Rogers declared themselves candidates for the House of Commons. All of these gentlemen took strong and decided ground in opposition to the Howard amendment, as the paramount and absorbing issue before the people. They will support no man for Governor, or any other office, who commits himself in its favor. As yet they have no opposition.

We repeat, what we have heretofore said, that all merely local or State issues are entirely subordinate to the great national question that is before us. Where men are right and sound upon that question, we may well be content to leave them to the entertainment of their peculiar views on side issues—reserving the right, on the proper occasion in the future, to combat those views wherever they may conflict with our own opinions of propriety and expediency. If the Radical programme prevails, we shall have no State governments, much less mere issues of State policy.

Guano—Gwanny.

The time for seeding wheat is at hand. In the paucity of labor in the State, it is all important that our planters this fall and next Spring should use fertilizers liberally, if possible. As Gen. Dockery will soon visit the wheat region, and as he has some experience in the use of gwanny, we advise our planting friends, who may chance to fall in with the old gentleman, to insist that he shall expatiate largely upon the properties, uses and the superior excellencies of gwanny over other fertilizers. Only in that way can the old gentleman's visit be profitable, as his politics have become so fossilized, it will be impossible for him to instruct the present generation upon that science, as now modernized by his Radical supporters.

Bennett's Last Roorback.

The New York Herald, in its new-born, or rather, perhaps, new-bought, zeal for the Howard Amendment, is studiously seeking to create the false and unfounded impression that President Johnson is wavering in his adherence to his policy. It states, upon the authority of a nameless Washington correspondent, that the President has "opened a correspondence with the Governors of the lately rebellious States as to the propriety," in view of the success of the Congressional plan in New England, "of ratifying the Constitutional amendment," and that "the Governors of South Carolina and Alabama have already replied, signifying a readiness to assemble the Legislatures of their States and recommend the adoption of the amendment if the President adjudges it expedient to do so." Of course there is not a syllable of truth in this statement. No such correspondence has been opened with the Governor of North Carolina, and as Bennett's correspondent says that it has been opened with all the Southern Governors, the old maxim, "false in one particular—false in all," may well be applied.

But two days since, in reply to the Address of Gen. Granger, presenting him with the proceedings of the Cleveland Convention, President Johnson took occasion to declare, emphatically, that, "God willing," he would continue to persevere in the policy which he has heretofore pursued.

We warn the people of North Carolina that this roorback will be repeated and re iterated by the Radical press in this State during the pending canvass. They will studiously seek to create the impression that President Johnson will not object to the ratification of the negro-suffrage Howard amendment. If there is any one thing against which the President is positively and unequivocally committed, it is that amendment, and any assertion to the contrary is untrue and those who make it know that it is false!

Gen. Dockery's Opinion of Mr. Holden in 1864.

An intelligent correspondent of the Fayetteville Observer, writing from Richmond County, in this State, on the 1st of August, 1864, in giving an account of a discussion at Little's Mills, the 14th of July of that year, in which Col. B. F. Little, Col. O. H. Dockery, the late Col. Jno. W. Cameron and Gen. Dockery took part, after giving a synopsis of the remarks of the first three, and in allusion to the remarks of Col. C., says:

"This stirred up the ire of the old war horse, Gen. Dockery. He arose and said he verily believed he would have been Governor of North Carolina had it not been for this same Bill Holden; that others had lied on him, but Holden out-lied them all; that no man could be elected Governor of North Carolina who would not lie, [humiliating confession] and closed by saying, he would vote for said Bill Holden under protest."

We think it very likely that "this same Bill Holden" and the superior force of his competitor, Gov. Bragg, before the people in 1854, prevented Gen. Dockery from being Governor of N. C., and we are sure that "this same Bill Holden," added to the superior claims of Gov. Worth, will defeat him in 1866. Yet, it is strange that a man like Gen. Dockery, who believes that no man can be made Governor of North Carolina unless he lies, should be a candidate. Has he determined to go it this time and lie in, or does he rely upon Mr. Holden, to use his own classic language, to "lie" him in? Which? We believe Mr. Holden has said nothing about voting for Dockery under protest. We shall publish the whole letter tomorrow.

TOURGEE.—The inevitable Tourgee has turned up again,—this time at the so-called Soldiers' Convention at Pittsburg. In looking over the first day's proceedings, we observe the following entry:

Vice President, from North Carolina—Capt. A. W. Tourgee.

Committee on Credentials, from North Carolina—Capt. A. W. Tourgee.

Committee on Resolutions, from North Carolina—Capt. A. W. Tourgee.

We infer from this that the Ohio abolitionist is alone in his glory, as the representative of all the buffaloes and deserters in North Carolina, and a most fit representative at that.

By the way, why was not this "pond-dragger" present at the Radical Convention which met at the Standard office, in this city, on the 20th. We would respectfully enquire if no letter was received from him on that interesting occasion?

Deep River Coal.

We regret to hear that the proprietors of the Egypt Coal Mine have discontinued operations. The reason, we are informed, is that the freights on the Western R. R. are so high that mining will not bear the expense of getting the coal to market. If this be so, the policy pursued by the Directors is a most remarkable one. It is said that freight, by way of Wilmington, Fayetteville and the Western R. R., on a lot of goods to Egypt, was $24.50, while on the same lot, by way of Norfolk, Weldon and Raleigh, the freight is $18. We believe the policy of low freights, creating business, is the best for our Railroads.

In this connection we learn also that Steam Saw Mills, on the line of the Wilmington and Weldon and other Railroads, have been forced to be discontinued on account of high freights.

The New York World says that the circulations of the New York Herald and the New York Times have greatly decreased of late, and that the tergiversations of those papers are their attempts at recovery. The people are prefering the decided to the trimming papers, now that the contest has waxed warm.

Gen. Elzey, formerly of the Confederate army, has purchased a tract of land near Jessop's Cut, in Anne Arundel county, Md, on which he is erecting a handsome residence.

The Briarfield Iron Works, Alabama, under the superintendence of General I. Gorgas, ci-devant chief of ordinance Confederate States, are rapidly approaching completion.

Keep it Before the People.

It will be claimed, in the strong old Union counties, that Gen. Dockery has been a far more consistent Union man than Gov. Worth. We beg the Union men to remember that, in the Legislature of 1860-61, at the critical period when the Union men of the State thought it all important that all tendencies to secession should be carefully and persistently discouraged, even as late as December 1860, Gen. Dockery, who claims to be such a strong Union man, actually voted to put the State of North Carolina on a war footing, by authorizing the Governor to purchase $300,000 worth of arms and munitions of war. Who voted against it, to maintain his consistency as a Union man and to discourage even the semblance of hostility to the general government? Why, Jonathan Worth and two others.

For the Sentinel.

A public meeting of the citizens of of Greensboro and Guilford County, for the purpose of consulting together in reference to rebuilding the Greensboro Female College, was held in the Court House, Tuesday afternoon, the 25th instant. A. P. Eckel, Mayor, was called to the chair, and H. G. Kellogg was appointed Secretary.

The object of the meeting was explained by the Chairman. Rev. N. E. D. Wilson, Prof. Sterling, C. P. Mendenhall and Rev. John Long also presented forcible reasons why this community should do all in its power to rebuild the institution.

A copy was read of the action of the Board of Trustees providing for the formation of a joint stock company, and also a statement made that the Legislature had amended the act of incorporation in accordance with the wish of the Board.

On motion a committee of three, consisting of Rev. Wm. Barringer, A. G. Brenizer, and Seymour Steele, was appointed to wait upon our citizens and solicit subscriptions of stock.

On motion of Colonel Chas. E. Shober, the proceedings of the meeting were ordered to be furnished to the Greensboro' Patriot, Weekly Message, and the Raleigh Sentinel, with the request that they be published in these papers.

On motion the meeting adjourned.

A. P. ECKEL, Chairman.
H. G. KELLOGG, Secretary.

Failure of the National Express Company.

The following announcement which we find in the Richmond Times of yesterday, will cause a general feeling of regret:

"The National Express and Transportation Company, which has scarcely been in operation twelve months, has virtually failed. A deed of assignment of all its property, rights and credits has been made by the Board of Directors to John Blair Hoge, John J. Kelley and C. Oliver O'Donnell, who had been selected as trustees to settle up the affairs of the concern. According to the terms of agreement, there are certain priorities of debts which are to be settled first, among which we will enumerate:

First. The payment of the officers, agents, clerks and other employees of the company.

Second. The payment of two debts (which are the principal creditors of the company)—one due to the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company and the other to the Bank of Commerce of Baltimore, the exact sums of which cannot be stated.

Third. To indemnify any officer or director of the company who may have become liable as endorser or security for the company.

Fourth. The payment of railroad companies for transportation of express matter.

Fifth. The payment of all other debts and liabilities of the company in rateable proportion.

The company is to be permitted to remain in the use of its property till the first of November, 1866, and thereafter till the Trustees shall be requested by one or more of the creditors secured, and whose debt or debts shall then be due, to take charge of such property. But should the Board of Directors make a request to that effect, the Trustees appointed are permitted to assume control of the matter and wind up the affairs of the company at any time from the date of the deed of assignment. The deed covers several pages, and has been entered of record in the Hustings Court of this city.

This denouement of the National Express Company is seriously to be deplored, if for no other reason than the fact that it gave employment to a large number of needy persons. Its operations were very extensive, and the sudden announcement of its failure will doubtless cause much astonishment.

IN THE STANDARD OFFICE.—The Raleigh papers contain the proceedings of the convention which assembled in the office of the Raleigh Standard, which proceedings we do not give in this issue because we do not think they are worth publication. The "Address and Declaration of Principles" are promulgated, not by any committee or organized body, but over the signature of Holden. It is therefore merely Holdenism—stuff that our people are so weary of that we will not detail it. Committees were appointed in different Counties, and the names of citizens were used, very often without their authority or consent, we hope. In all such cases those who have been thus insulted by an impertinent use of their names, should come out and publicly rebuke the insolence of these disunionists and conspirators against the Government.—Fay. News.

CANDIDATES.—As will be seen in our advertising columns, James T. Morehead, Jr., W. R. Smith and Joseph A. Houston are candidates for the Commons. The canvass opened on Monday. These gentlemen are all Johnson-Worth-anti-Howard-Amendment-men, and in their addresses to the people thus far have challenged an answer to their arguments against this degrading measure. As yet no response has been made. There may possibly be a secret ticket in the county, which favors the disfranchisement of nine-tenths of our people. It therefore behooves all lovers of constitutional liberty to be on the alert. Not a single voter should absent himself from the polls, and all should feel it incumbent upon themselves to spare not a single effort to defeat the monstrous and odious doctrines which bad and designing men desire to force upon the South.—Greensboro Patriot.

GEN. R. E. COLSTON.—A circular from the Hillsborough Military Academy of North Carolina informs us that the institution will open on the 1st of October, under the superintendency of Gen. R. E. Colston. Gen. C. was for fifteen years a Professor in the Virginia Military Institute, and left it only for the field, where he won the special commendations of Stonewall Jackson for his skill and gallantry. He has now made North Carolina his permanent home. His reputation as a scholar, a professor, and a gentleman, is so wide-spread that the Institution of which he has assumed the direction cannot but command a large share of the public favor and patronage.—Richmond Enquirer.

DIED.

On Sunday, September 23rd, at his residence in Petersburg, WALKER A. CAMERON, in the 47th. year of his age.

Mr. Cameron was a native of North Carolina, but for the larger portion, if not the whole of his manhood, a resident of Petersburg, where he won the esteem of all, for his manly, upright and honorable life. Singularly gentle and amiable of disposition, he passed his career among us, with as few enemies as any citizen in the long catalogue of the merchants of Petersburg, whose death we have been called to mourn within the past five years.—Index.

FOR SALE!
800 ACRE TRACT
OF MOST SUPERIOR FARMING LAND
IN BUNCOMBE COUNTY,
North Carolina.
IN pursuance of a decree of the Court of Equity for Buncombe County, I will proceed to sell on the premises to the highest bidder, on Saturday the 3d. day of November next, for partition among the heirs at law of Fidelio Patton, dec'd, a valuable tract of FARMING LAND,
in a high state of cultivation containing eight hundred acres, more or less, one hundred acres of which is bottom land, lying immediately on the Swannanoa river, and within one-half mile of the confluence of the Swannanoa and French Broad rivers. This tract of land is about two miles from the village of Asheville, and directly on the line of the survey of the Western N. C. Railroad now in course of construction from Salisbury to the Tennessee line. This tract is well timbered and watered; and there are on the premises, in a convenient and pleasant locality, a large and comfortable Dwelling House, and all necessary out-buildings.
TERMS OF SALE:
Two Thousand Dollars Cash, and the balance of the purchase money in one, two, and three years, in equal instalments,—purchaser giving bond and approved security.
At office in Asheville, this 18th. day of September, Anno Domini, 1866.

Plot or Plat?

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Finger boards are erected in the Capitol Square, warning offending urchins to "keep off the Grass PLOTS." Whose spelling is this? Has a foul murder of the King's English been perpetrated? I desire light on this subject. Bad spelling must not be allowed at the seat of Government, even at the centre of this great State. PEDAGOGUE.

STERLING'S SOUTHERN SERIES.—We acknowledge the receipt, from the author, Prof. Richard Sterling, A. M., of Edgeworth Seminary, of the following publications of his series, viz: "Sterling's Southern Primer," "Sterling's Southern Elementary Spelling Book, and "Sterling's Southern First Reader." We noticed these books some days since. They are handsomely printed and illustrated, and appear, from the cursory inspection we have been able to give them, to be admirably adapted for youthful instruction. We hope to see them generally adopted in our primary schools, and shall be pleased if some friend, who may have the leisure to analyze their contents and merits, would give us an article upon the subject.

WE LEARN that Col. Jno. H. Wheeler, of Washington City, and formerly of this State, has been appointed Assistant in the Bureau of Statistics, in charge of the branch relative to foreign c untries.

M. S. Robins, of Randolph, is the Union-Johnson-Worth candidate in the Senatorial District composed of that County and Alamance.

JOHNSTON COURT.—The fall term of the Superior Court of Johnston was held the present week, Judge Merrimon presiding. We learn that the Judge dispatched business with great promptness and fidelity, and that he administered several very impressive lessons, which will not be soon forgotten, upon the majesty of the law and the respect due the Court.

RANDOLPH COURT.—The Superior Court of Law held its fall session in Randolph the present week. Judge Fowle presided with his accustomed ability and dignity. There were about 200 cases, we learn, on the criminal docket, all of which were disposed of promptly. We take occasion to say that our information impresses us forcibly with the ability, working energy and promptness of the entire Superior Court bench of the State.

CHATHAM.—W. P. Taylor and R. B. Paschall are candidates for the Senate in this county, and Messrs. Thos. B. Harriss, N. A. Ramsay, Elisha Straughn, M. Q. Waddell, McDonald and Womble are out for the Commons. We learn that all these gentlemen are decidedly against the negro suffrage Howard amendment.

THE COTTON CROP.—We are sorry to learn that rust has attacked the growing crop of cotton almost universally in this State, and that the yield will be much less than was anticipated a few months ago. Some attribute the disease to the cold nights of August; others to the foreign manures largely used in the preparation of the crop this year. It is thought by some that the yield will be cut off about one-fourth.

N. C. CONFERENCE.—This will inform Ministers and others, designing to attend the session of the N. C. Annual Conference, M. E. Church, South, which will convene in this place, the 7th November next, that Steamboats for their accommodation will leave Wilmington on the 5th of November, and arrive in Fayetteville on Tuesday, the 6th.

Also, there will be daily trains on the Western Railroad to Egypt, during the week of Conference, commencing on Monday, the 5th Nov.

I request that local preachers, designing to attend the session of Conference, and young men who intend to join Conference, will inform me of their intention at their earliest convenience. T. W. GUTHRIE.

Fayetteville, Sept. 24, 1866.

Rebuke to Radicals.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., Sept. 22, 10.20 P. M.—The ward election in Congressman Cullom's district yesterday resulted in sixty-four National Union majority. The Radical majority last spring was seventeen. The City Council is National Union. This is a rebuke to the City Council for its late action against the President. The issue was clearly and distinctly made between Conservatives and Radicals.

The "convention" which nominated Mr. Dockery for Governor was composed of not more than twenty persons. One account says but eighteen men were in the concern, representing only eight Counties and not that many thousand voters.—Green. Patriot.

Illness of Dr. Hawks.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.—The Rev. Francis L. Hawks, D. D., of the Protestant Episcopal Church, is lying dangerously ill at his residence in this city.

A man has been arrested in New Orleans charged with murder. On his finger he wore a ring that had a snap claw in it, which was filled with deadly poison. A scratch with it would cause death in three hours.

A Contrast.

The Jacobins, in their warfare upon the President, invoke the name and appeal to the policy of President Lincoln in justification of their schemes on all occasion, but they have forgotten his precepts and have departed from his practices. Almost every position they now occupy, and almost everything they now propose, is in direct antagonism with his utterances and views. One of the last, as it was one ot the noblest sentiments he ever uttered, in connection with those who were even then making war upon the government of which he was the chief, was, "With malice toward none, but with charity for all," which was as creditable to his head as to his heart, and covered the true policy by which to win back the Southern people to their allegiance. Had he lived, there is little room for doubt that he would have acted upon it in the restoration of the Union, and would of course have brought upon himself, as President Johnson has done, the curses of those who are clamoring for blood and plunder, with hearts filled with malice and charity for none. His philosophy embraced conciliation and forgiveness. He saw that it was not by harsh measures, but by kindness, that any valuable and enduring peace could be secured. He sought once more to cement the Union and to restore harmony and fraternal feeling. From these would spring a hardy and vigorous love of country and devotion to the constitution. How different the plans and theories of the Jacobin crew, who profess with black hypocrisy to revere his memory and to be executing his policy? They are filled with malignity, and seek to trample upon the already prostrate, impoverished, and helpless South. They still thirst for blood and plunder. They would tear the union to fragments to reach their aim, and overthrow the constitution to accomplish their designs. Remorseless, sordid, and cruel, they regard nothing but their own selfish interests, and turn a deaf ear to the cries of the suffering and desolated South, and to the rebukes of their consciences of their unparralleled and reckless villainy. Such is the contrast between them and President Lincoln. President Johnson's policy embraces the spirit of his predecessor, which we have quoted: "With malice towards none, but with charity for all." Yet he is the object of their vituperation and would be the victim of their malice, if they had the courage to make a practical exhibition of the hate and bitterness they feel.—Louisville Courier.

FORNEY, tired of singning "Occasional" to his letters to "my two papers, both daily," is now writing to himself and abusing the President over the signature of "JANE CATHERWAIT, a washerwoman." This is all well enough, for FORNEY has been almost everything; but there is a coolness in his assuming to be "the wife of a Union soldier and the mother of five children."

WELL NAMED.—The Raleigh Sentinel calls Harper's famous pictorial the "Journal of Civilies-ation."

The record of this paper fully sustains the justice of our cotemporary's nomenclature; for it is full of the suggestio falsi, suppressio veri, and lie unqualified. These are embellished by the engraver's art, and sold for the moderate sum of ten cents, to embitter sectional animosity and stir up strife.—N. Y. Day Book.

A Presbyterian minister in New York, on a recent Sabbath, suddenly disappeared behind the pulpit, while a mysterious smoke, with a strong smell of brimstone, rose in his stead. He was "putting himself out," his vehement demonstrations having ignited some lucifer matches lying loose in his pocket.

General Frank P. Blair, of the United States army, made a fine speech in Memphis last Friday night. General Forrest, of the late C. S. army, introduced General Blair, who was frequently applauded during his speech by the large and appreciative audience, and who loudly cheered at its close.

The Louisville Courier gives the names of three hundred and seventy-two persons in Kentucky indicted for treason and conspiracy. It says that "in all these cases the U. S. District Attorney has entered a nolle prosequi."

"What is that thing on the back of that lady's head?" said one of our compositors, who is of an investigating turn of mind, as a lady with her hair done up "according to Hoyle," i. e. in the latest style of the art, passed under our window. Our devil, who had been casting hurried glances around the room, at last, evidently much relieved, broke out with "Well, I declare, I thought 'twas our sponge, but I see that's here."

North Carolina Red Strings.

The 20th of September was the day fixed by the North Carolina Red Strings for the meeting of their Convention in Raleigh. The day came, and with its fifteen of these patriots, professing to represent eight counties out of the eighty-nine of the gallant old North State.

The per centum of treachery represented here is just a little larger than that found among the Apostles; so our Carolina friends have no cause to blush for the record of their State. These immortal "fifteen" held a caucus at the Standard office, and there, after looking, as we fancy, with blank dismay at the prospect before them, resolved to attempt no public display. They expected to explode a ton of nytroglycerine, and only succeeded in a flash in the pan.

The Old North State, true to her traditional renown, has covered the Red Strings with a gigantic wet blanket.—Norfolk Day Book.

A LUDICROUS AFFAIR—A LADY TERRIBLY FRIGHTENED.—A lady in a neighboring town a few days since purchased a "frizzle dress" or "tow-head." Going to bed, she hung her headgear on the post at the foot of her bed. Being awakened by some unusual noise during the night she raised herself up in bed, and seeing the unusual sight she imagined a curly-headed negro peering over the foot-board. Obeying a very natural impulse she sprang from her bed, and in her alarm and inability to escape she seized the supposed intruder by the head, and with a terrific scream fell fainting to the floor. The noise awoke the mother of the lady, who immediately struck a light and rushed to the scene of alarm. There lay the daughter, pale and motionless on the floor, with the imaginary head of Cuffy, held at arm's length in a deadly grasp. Restoratvies and a momentary survey of the scene soon unravelled the mystery.—Wheeling Register.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

DR. MAGGIEL is the founder of a new Medical System! The quantitarians, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all healing Salve. These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiel's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so-called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended. Maggil's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full taken creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggiel's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant! There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the liver is affected, its functions are restored; and if the nervous system is feeble, it is invigorated. This last quality makes the medicines very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Ulcerous and eruptive diseases are literally extinguished by the disinfectant power of Maggiel's Salve. In fact, it is announced that Maggiel's Billious, Dyspeptic and Diarrhœa Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggiel's Salve is infallible. Sold by J. MAGGIEL, 11 Pine St., New York, and all Druggists, at 25 cts. per box.

It will restore Gray Hair to its original Color.

It will keep the Hair from falling out.

It cleanses the scalp, and makes the Hair soft, lustrous, and silken.

It is a splendid Hair-Dressing.

No person, old or young, should fail to use it.

It is recommended and used by the first Medical authority.

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMETTER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Gedrick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

"I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

"Dr. Maggiel has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave half of one of your pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Maggiel's Salve cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Salve behind my ears and the noise left."

"Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar; your price is twenty-five cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five boxes of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail."

I have over 200 such Testimonals

As this, but want of space compels me to conclude

NEW AND ATTRACTIVE CANTATA.

A WINTER EVENING'S ENTERTAINMENT.

A Social Cantata,

IN TWO PARTS.

Words by Sidney Dyer. Music by C. A. Cult.

This Cantata introduces the hearty pleasures which render enjoyable the long evenings of our Northern winters. Among these are a "Quilting Bee," a Snow Balling" scene, "Hide and Seek," Love Scenes, Comic Scenes, and other attractive features. The Cantata can be sung without action or scenery, but if the latter is desired, a little ingenuity will supply it, directions for which are given. It is easily "brought out," and cannot fail to afford satisfaction and amusement whenever produced. Price, Cloth, $1.25; Paper, $1.00, on receipt of which it will be sent post paid.

M'ILWAINE & CO.,

WHOLESALE DEALERS IN STAPLE & FANCY DRY GOODS.

No. 79 Sycamore Street,

Petersburg, Virginia,

TAKE PLEASURE IN INFORMING THEIR friends and the trade generally that the steady increase of their business has rendered it necessary for them to add two rooms to their Dry Goods Department, together with a large and convenient entrance from Tabb street, which arrangement gives them a most spacious Sales-room, well lighted, and enables them by this increased accommodation to add largely to their Fall Supply.

They beg leave to invite particular attention to their extensive assortment of

made to order under the supervision of Mr. A. S. SHAFER, whose long experience in this department of business, in this city, has made him familiar with the wants of Merchants in Virginia and North Carolina. Anticipating a heavy Trade this Fall, their stock will be found unusually large, embracing a general assortment of

American and Foreign

STAPLE AND FANCY DRY GOODS,

together with a full line of

which having been purchased for cash, they have no hesitation in saying to the Trade, that they are prepared to offer such inducements as will insure satisfaction.

Capt. EDWARD GRAHAM and Mr. JOHN McNEECE have charge of this Department, and will be pleased to exhibit our stock to buyers visiting this market. McILWAINE & CO.

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE,

WASHINGTON, D. C,

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the Colleges Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise.

Opening of New Fall Goods,

With an extensive assortment of CARPETS, RUGS, DRUGGETTS AND GENERAL HOUSE-KEEPING GOODS, and an entirely new stock of the handsomest DRESS GOODS the market affords.

Ladies will find this the best opportunity to procure choice new styles of FALL DRESS GOODS, which I am now opening in great variety, such as splendid Eugenia and Empress Cloths, Crepes, Merinos, Goldanelia, richly embroidered—an entirely new things, rich, brilliant silk stripes on chene grounds: "Tycnaconia A'Soie, effective Carcaux, with rich Broches," "Lornetto, effective Satin Carreaux," on lasting finish grounds, very costly; "Rich Valentia, in plain chene," all new and desirable shades, prime qualities and beautiful designs, with rich Broches.

A magnificent assortment of

in all their new styles and combinations, at prices that will not fail to please. I would call special attention to my stock of the largest in Va., or North Carolina, embracing 20,000 yards, all bought at auction, and will be sold at prices far below any similar quality ever offered in this market. I have also just received over 10,000 yards of PANTALOON GOODS, in every variety of finish and quality, varying in price from 30c, to $3. This stock is the largest and most complete of the kind that I have ever offered, and will be constantly replenished during the season as the demand requires.

At a future day I will enumerate the different lines of Goods I usually keep. Suffice it to say, at present, that everything kept in any first-class Dry-Goods House can be found here, in every variety, at the lowest prices.

I would say to those in want of

that the greatest care has been taken in the selection of the best colors and finest fabrics, and they have but to be seen to be appreciated, so that those in want had better

JAS. L. HATHAWAY AND UTLEY

(Formerly HATHAWAY & Co., Importers of MOLASSES and SUGAR, Wilmington, N. C.)

Shipping and Commission Merchants,

171 PEARL STREET, NEW YORK.

We solicit consignments of Cotton, Naval Stores, Sheetings, Yarns, Tobacco, and other Southern Products, to the sale of which our prompt personal attention will be given. We will make liberal advances upon receipt of Invoice and Bill of Lading. All Merchandise and Produce shipped to us for sale are insured from point of shipment, with or without advice. Invoices should always accompany each shipment.

Both of us having had over twenty years' experience in business in the South, and our J. L. HATHAWAY three years in New York, we feel confident we can secure full prices for our friends who will favor us with their consignments.
